FAQ's

WHAT is THE WAY? It is a weekend experience that encourages faith formation of participants through sharing the Gospel of Jesus Christ in the Reformed Tradition. We gather for three days of Worship, prayer, and Christian fellowship in extraordinary youth led ministry.

WHO can attend? The weekend is open to 8th – 12th grade students of all faith backgrounds and adults who are interested in participating in this ministry. The weekend is limited to the first 20 respondents.

Why should I attend? The Way is a unique experience designed to help you grow in faith and understanding of the teaching of Jesus Christ. The weekend provides an opportunity to recognize Christ within a loving community where you can be yourself and come to know the joy that arises from living your life for God.

When is the next weekend? January 31- February 2, 2020. Please arrive Friday between 7:15-7:30pm; the weekend does not begin until everyone has arrived. Enter from the parking lot. Bring a sleeping bag/pillow/floor mat/pajamas, towel/toiletries/tote bag to carry them to the shower, casual clothing/jacket if cold, Medication.
