

FAQ's

WHAT is THE WAY? It is an overnight experience that encourages faith formation of participants through sharing the Gospel of Jesus Christ in the Reformed Tradition. We gather for Worship, prayer, and Christian fellowship in extraordinary youth led ministry.

WHO can attend? The weekend is open to 8th – 12th grade students of all faith backgrounds and adults who are interested in participating in this ministry.

Why should I attend? The Way is a unique experience designed to help you grow in faith and understanding of the teaching of Jesus Christ. The weekend provides an opportunity to recognize Christ within a loving community where you can be yourself and come to know the joy that arises from living your life for God.

When is the next weekend? FEB. 3-5, 2023. It is important to arrive Saturday between 8-8:15am; the weekend does not begin until everyone has arrived. Enter from the parking lot. The event ends after 10:15 worship on Sunday. Bring a sleeping bag/pillow/floor mat/pajamas, toothbrush, etc., casual clothing/jacket if cold, Medication.
